Dear Talented Teen International Family:

Debi and I are pleased to have the 39th Annual Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International Scholarship Program (HJTII) in our home town of New York City July 11 – 19, 2009. Can you believe it has been 39 years since the first winner, June Kelly-Johnson now residing in Colorado, was recognized for her poise, grace, intelligence and talent? We are so excited knowing that the theme "I Am Change" has embodied the thrust of the United States presidential campaign with our new leader President Barack Obama. We also know the young ladies representing the World's Most Talented Teens for the year 2009 will change the world in their own way in the near future because each young lady is a champion in her own right.

There have been many challenges. We know it. There are loads of individuals filing for foreclosure, losing jobs, taking loses on their retirement savings, but we are forging ahead knowing that Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International will go on empowering and giving scholarships to deserving young ladies with outstanding intelligence and talents. We know it was a struggle for you to do a competition in your location. Times are hard everywhere in the world but with determination, strength and perseverance you came through and brought us the best talent from your location – thank you from the bottom of our hearts. We wish to thank all of the parents and companies that have assisted in making the HJTII program a success this year. Without you we would not exist.

The week of activities has included the Broadway play Mary Poppins, a meeting with Mayor Bloomberg at Gracie Mansion, an outdoor concert in Brooklyn, two very special luncheons, a tour of radio station 107.5 WBLS, many rehearsals, workshops and seminars as well as the Shooting Star Awards Dinner where I celebrated 70 years in broadcasting. It has proven to be a very special week for all of us.

Thank you so much to our Directors and corporate sponsors for supporting HJTII. We know it has been a challenge. We truly thank you for your dedication to this program. I know our young ladies will achieve all their dreams and sculpt their lives into the masterpieces they were meant to be.

Sincerely,

Hal Jackson

A Word About Michael Jackson

Michael and Emanuel Lewis at Tavern on the Green prior to announcing the Jackson 5 Tour in 1980's

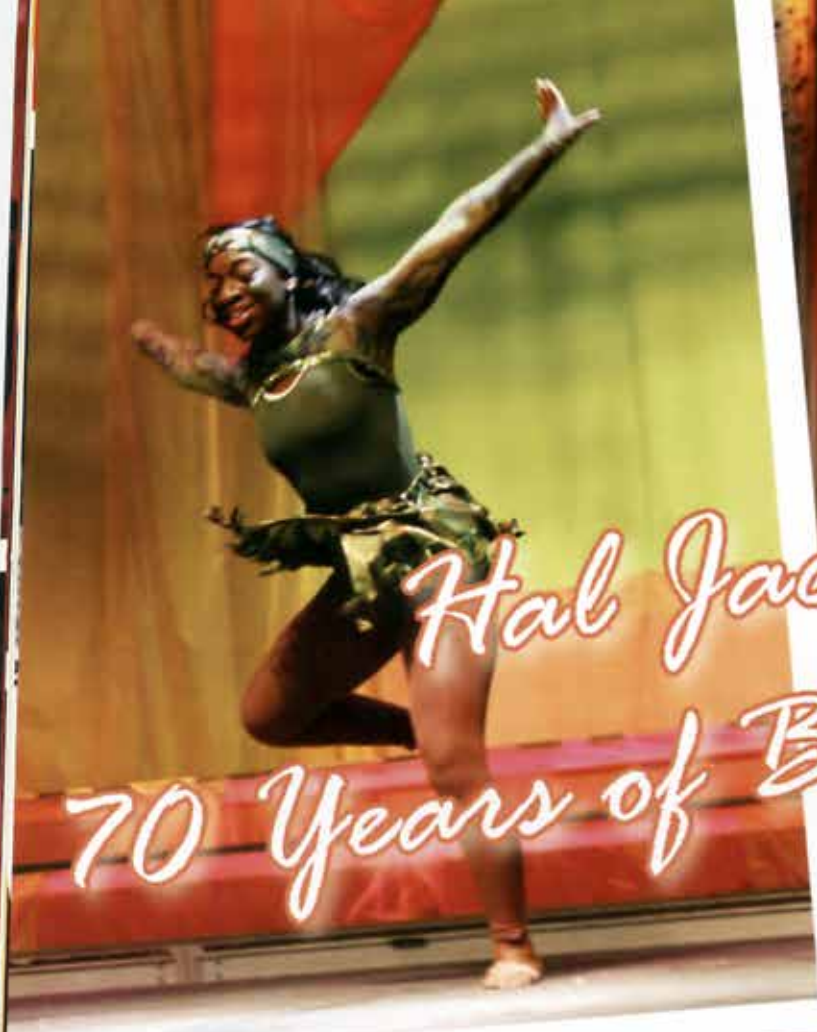

Tonya Gray, Debi Jackson, Michael, Angela Nelson and Hal Jackson before a concert at Madison Square Garden in NYC in 1990's

I have known Michael Jackson since he burst on the entertainment scene in the 1960s. Berry Gordy called and told me about a fantastic group of brothers that he wanted me to see. I immediately confirmed to have them as a guest on the Miss Black America television show making that appearance their first time on television. Over the years Michael and I became close. When he was filming The Wiz in New York City, he would come by my office and sit with me. Michael loved to draw and write. He also said that he hated the idea of having to put on all of the makeup needed for the shooting of the movie. Michael, Jermaine, Janet and Randy have been a part of Talented Teens shows. As a matter of fact Michael Jackson was on hand the night Sheryl Piland won the program in 1978.

Michael Jackson through the years has been a friend of Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International. He will be truly missed!

Program Overview

Youth Development Foundation, Inc. Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International®

"Promoting Culture & Education through the Performing Arts"

Youth Development Foundation, Inc. (YDF) is a non-profit tax-exempt organization that promotes culture and education through the performing arts. Founded in 1971 by Hal Jackson, legendary radio personality, who has been named a "National Treasure" by the Smithsonian Institution, is a Broadcasting and Cable Hall of Fame inductee, a National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame inductee, a Radio Hall of Fame inductee, and a Black Radio Hall of Fame inductee; provides a support system for girls which offers exposure, encourages cross-culture exchange and nurtures emerging talent from around the world while providing training, educational scholarships and travel opportunities for young women.

YDF showcases the intelligence and talents of girls 13 to 17 years of age from the United States and abroad. The program is open to all ethnic groups with an emphasis on diversity and intercultural awareness. Program participants typically are average or above academically and have performing talents. These young ladies want to use their gifts as a platform for attaining their secondary educational goals.

State and country programs are held from January through June in approximately 30 states and 10 countries. Area programs provide activities dedicated to youth, education and community involvement. Additionally as a part of each program, girls participate in a series of training sessions and local competitions where they are judged in categories demonstrating academic abilities, talent and stage presence. State and country winners move on to the international event Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International (HJTTI) to compete to become Miss Talented Teen International.

The young ladies are brought together during International Week. They tour the competition city – visit radio and/or television stations to learn about operations behind the scenes in the media industry – visit restaurants to taste foods of different cultures – attend Broadway shows and ultimately rehearse for their appearance on stage. Winners have received over $1,000,000 in scholarships, prizes and inter-cultural trips abroad.

The Youth Development Foundation, Inc. via Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International assists in preventing drug abuse and pregnancy among youth by developing self-esteem and confidence, which is essential for the positive development of young ladies and success in all aspects of their lives.

HJTTI/YDF winners and/or contestants who have become success stories, include, but not limited to civil court judge Tanya R. Kennedy, principal Delise Jones, Jada Pinkett Smith, Ce Ce Peniston, the late Michelle Thomas, Vanessa Williams, and Sheryl Lee Ralph.

Cynthia Foreman

Hal Jackson's Miss. Black Teenage America 1972

Cynthia Lewis Foreman started a pie company in 2006 in Oakland, California. There she and her staff manufactures and distributes her signature line 2-inch Sweet Potato pies and Pecan pies. The Sweetie Pies are sold in local California based stores and across the country through her website. Recently, the pies were a hit for the VIP's at Tavis Smiley's State of The Union in Los Angeles, The NAACP pre-party for Tisha Campbell (star of Chris), Bill Russell's Fantasy Basketball Camp at the Wynn Hotel in Las Vegas, The NFL Retired Players Convention and The Joe Morgan Golf Tournament for Inner City Youth Programs. Hopefully, after August you will be able to enjoy Sweetie Pies on a major airline carrier.

Ms. Foreman often refers to herself as the "new" Aunt Jemima in a male dominated industry. Sweetie Pies is 100% woman owned and operated. Being an entrepreneur does have its challenges but there are also pluses as well like being able to give back to the community whether it's through fundraising efforts or being an advocate for batter women. This year, we were able to employ more teens part-time and one full-time. And this fall, we will be offering Self Esteem Workshops to young ladies 13 to 17; you don't have to guess where that inspiration came from. Congratulations, Miss Talented Teen International Family for 39 years! I can truly say that being a contestant and a winner was an experience of a lifetime and I will cherish the memories forever. I thank God for giving Hal Jackson the vision to create Miss Talented Teen International. THANK YOU, Hal and Debi! Love You, Cynthia Lewis Foreman, President, Sweetie Pies

39 Years of HJTTI

Nicola Dalrymple

Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International 2004

It has been five years since I was crowned Miss Hal Jackson's Talented Teen International 2004. These years though hectic have been tremendously rewarding. I have learnt to live life without fear of failure and without hesitation to achieve my goals. I have adopted the principle that I am the one who can make it happen and have translated this credo into every aspect of my life.

Within these five years, I graduated from high school after successfully completing my ordinary and advanced studies. After this it was onto pre-med in Trinidad, the Pre-Health Professions Programme, from which I graduated as the Valedictorian. I continued my journey towards becoming a medical doctor with the Bachelors of Medicine and Bachelors of Surgery degree at the University of the West Indies. It is a rigorous five year program and being in it had thought me the importance of time management and consistency. I am now in my third year and anxiously looking forward to be out of the classrooms and into the work field where I could make an even greater contribution to society.

In addition to academics, I have managed to sustain a life in the arts. At university I have been involved in numerous concerts, where I perform solos, as part of choirs and the as a member of the modern, bamboo, hip hop and reggae dance groups. I also joined a band in which I'm a vocalist; we perform with various artists at numerous occasions throughout Trinidad and Tobago. Of all my music endeavors, I consider my greatest achievement to be my album "Waiting to be real" a project driven by Mr. Andy and Mrs. Bonnie Cole. Who knows, if u keep an eye out for me I may be on international music television networks soon.

I continue to enjoy every moment of my life, welcoming the ups and downs. The balancing of my co-curricular activities especially my music with medical school has not been a walk in the park. However, I have been able to do it and make it this far because of my love for them both. It is as the reggae artist Richie Spice puts it "Life is what u make it, and if u don't make who's gonna make it for you.

So I encourage you to always put your best foot forward, for it is you who holds the future in your hands, second to God of course (smile).

Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International 2006

I completed the Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Examinations in 2008 and won a National Scholarship in the field of Visual and Performing Arts. In that year, I also competed in the Biennial National Music Festival and emerged victorious in several categories. After my graduation, I decided to take a gap year, and I returned to my high school as a Teacher's Assistant in the Art department. During this year, I also continued my study of music, and attained a merit in the Trinity School of Music's Grade Six Singing Examination. From August 2009, I will be attending American University in Washington, DC as an honors student, to pursue a degree in Graphic Design and Musical Theatre.

Michael Bivins

Michael Bivins first stepped on the music scene in 1983 as a member of the legendary RnB group New Edition becoming the face of bubble gum music around the world. While being the artist in the background learning and grooming his business skills he became the young inside man behind the scenes making deals and pushing the group's image and staying power to unprecedented heights throughout the 80's. When Motown records brought in music executive Jheryl Busby to succeed founding president Berry Gordy to head up chapter 2 he was granted a production company from Jheryl to go out and discover young talent that he called Biv Entertainment. The venture lead to groups such as Another Bad Creation (2 million sales) and Boyz II Men (11 million sales) off his first releases in the 90's to become the first young executive with that type of success and shot calling!

Michael has always been the man behind bringing music/sports to the masses of the world today. He hosted Running the Point on nba.com/tnt overtime's broadband channel as the voice of the world champions Boston Celtics and top players in the league giving you access and insight raising their online show up 22 percent in hits in his rookie season as a celebrity/commentator. MTV making the band 4 visionary Sean (Diddy) Combs brought him in to be his eyes and ears as he wanted to discover a reality show singing group to sign to his bad boy records. While reinventing himself to a broader and younger demo on screen he went from Artist Development executive on the show to also given credit as Creative Consultant on the most successful MTB4 show to date! He was featured in Urban Influence magazine as one of 2008's Men of Influence for his business and his many community events he does for youth in his hometown Boston, Mass. His urban lifestyle of music, entertainment & fashion will be reflected in his new company Sporty Rich Enterprises.

Amirah E Garwood

Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International and Missouri Queen 2008

Guess what? It was the trip to New York City, Sept. 2008. That I realized this!!!

Amirah Ellesse Garwood, "You are the Hal Jackson's International Talented Teens winner!"

"Awesome, Yes I shouted!"

With my mother, Juliuna, sister, Khaliah, Grandmother, Judy and the State Director, Lady Merdine. We began an awesome journey to the "Big Apple" New York City. My eyes became glazed over the many historical sites such as; Carnegie Hall, Holocaust Museum, Ground Zero, Radio City Music Hall, Central Park and of course BROADWAY!

You know it would not be New York without a fancy swank hair-do by none other than the "Hair Doctor" Ms. Anne. A perfect manicure, pedicure and crazy shopping to make a queen feel like true royalty. By this time I was marinating in my new title, "Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International Winner."

Still tender I returned to the "Show Me" state Missouri! This is where the duties of being royal began. Let me share with you some of the activities and events that I was honored to participate in. Gladys Knight and her 100 Voice Choir, wow, was that an experience. Ms. Knight loved the Talented Teens Crown. She said she could see it from 100miles away.

Then it was the Ebony Fashion Fair, Gateway Sports Annual Football Spectacular, Dr. Martin Luther King Holiday Celebration, Annie Malone Children's Home Gospelfest and countless other appearances. The latest and the greatest was the crowning of the new Miss Arkansas and Miss Missouri state winners of Hal Jackson's Talented Teens.

Farewell Address

Did I mention the most memorable and endearing time for me was when the legendary, Mr. Hal Jackson and his lovely wife Debi "B" came to my city St. Louis Missouri. They met my father, Michael Garwood and other members of my St. Louis, family and my special Missouri Talented Teens friends who were contestants for the Missouri program. You can believe me the city was humming with excitement.

We had photo shoots with the Mayor and License Collector along with the Jackson's seeing the "Big" Arch. Then it was on to the Scott Joplin House, Old Court House (place where Dred Scott decision was made). This was just a glimpse of the fun, activities and excitement that came with the Jackson's presence.

Being Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International 2008 has opened many doors of opportunity for me. Doors that I may never have experienced without Mr. Jackson's and Ms. Debi.

I offer you my sincerest gratitude and thanks.

Above all, I would like to thank God for placing me in a position to receive this blessing.

To my wonderful parents and sister Michael, Juliuna and Khaliah

My Grandmother, Judith

My Director, Chaperone Lady Merdine

I say it is with love, humility and grace, Thank-You

Farewell is the common term of endearment for a queen relinquishing her title.

It has been a year well done and it is well with my soul.

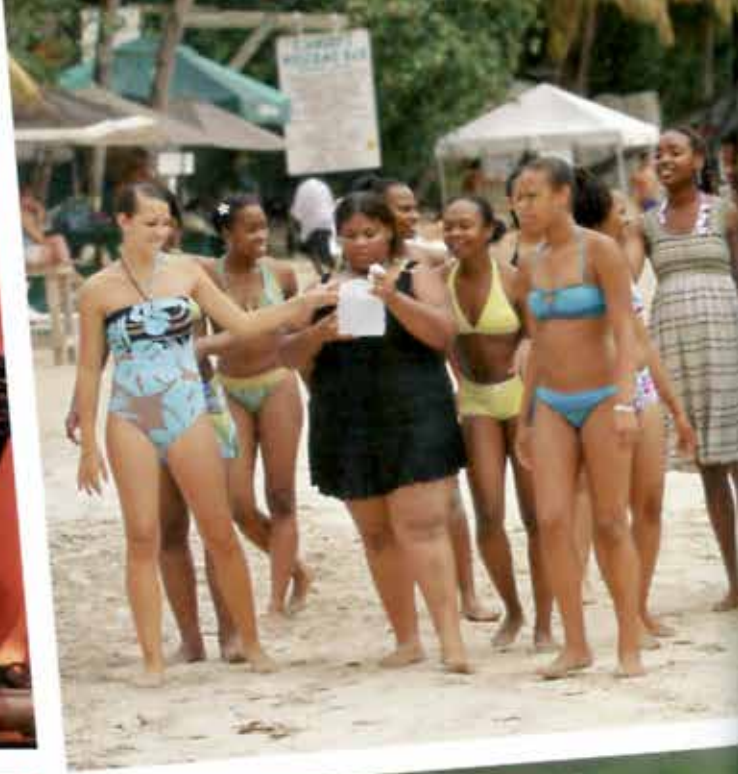

To all of the contestants and my successor, I wish you love and luck as you embark upon this most fascinating journey.

Wear the Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International crown with respect and dignity.

Smooches and kisses

Farewell

Thank You...
